

Emmeline Pankhurst, activist and leader of the British suffragette movement.
Image courtesy of the Women's Library at LSE. Design by Grey.

1918 PROCESSIONS 2018

On Sunday 10th June, women* and girls from across the UK will come together to create a vast participatory artwork taking place for one day in Belfast, Cardiff, Edinburgh and London.

*those who identify as women or non-binary

PROCESSIONS will be a living portrait of UK women in the 21st century. This is your once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to take part in a mass participation artwork to celebrate one hundred years of votes for women. Be part of something extraordinary this summer.

- Register (as an individual or group) to attend your nearest PROCESSIONS event at:
processions.co.uk/register
- Help us spread the word and invite your friends and family to join in!
- Make a banner, pennant or flag! Download the different toolkits at:
processions.co.uk/workshops/toolkits

SIGN UP TODAY AT: PROCESSIONS.CO.UK/REGISTER

@artichoketrust

@processions2018

#PROCESSIONS2018

Proud partner

NatWest

PROCESSIONS is produced by Artichoke and commissioned by 14-18 NOW: WW1 Centenary Art Commissions. Artichoke Trust is a registered charity no. 1112716.

Supported using public funding by

Artichoke core funders

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Idea generator partner
Bloomberg
Philanthropies